MUCH RIPPER MYSTERY

Prisoner or Witness Bekkie Gone from the House of Detention.

Committed by Coroner Schultze and Sald to Be in a Cell.

Proofs Against Frenchy Promised at the Inquest on Monday.

The mystery attending New York's 'Gack the Ripper" case is daily becoming more com-

The police are as reticent as ever, but i spite of their reticence certain facts keep com-ing to light that tend to confirm the opinion that "Frenchy No. 1," now in custody at the Tombe, may not be old Carrie Brown's mur-

It was learned to-day that that mysteriou character known as " William Bekkie," whom many imagine is "Prenchy No. 2" or "C. Kaiclo," old " Snakespeare's " companion, or possibly both, is not at the House of Deten-

He was formally committed there, however, by Coroner Schultze, in company with six April 25, the day after the murder was disc

The evamitments were made by Corone schultne at the request of Capt. O'Conner, of the Oak street station, pending further inestigations by the police. Among these seven witnesses co April 25 was one "Florence May," but she was not taken to the House of Detention, and Capt. O'Connor explained: "She was not wanted and so she was discharged."

Corener Schultze was seen by an Evnying Works reporter to-day and said that he remembered committing "William Bekkie" to the House of Decention and that if he wasn't there now he didn't know where he was, as he had never revoked the commitment.

No explanation as to Beckie's audeon disopporation is forthcoming from the police and notify can be learned about him in the feurin Ward.

n ting can be learned about him in the futil Ward.
It is rumored that he is now locked up at Fullec Headquarters, to be annuag as onter winess at the inquest into old "Snakes-pear-te" heads or at the trial of Ben All, alias "Freedom No. L"
Levy, Friend & House. "Frenchy's "law-yers, are quietly working on any case, but do not care to define their plan of operations until after the orroner's inquest next Monday. Meanwhite they are attending to the creature comfort of the client in the Tombs, who possibly from his lack of knowlege of the English language and American manners and castoms, does not appear to fully appreciate his critical position.

does not appear to fully appreciate his critical position.

The Grand Jury was in session again to-day and while the East River Hotel murder, it was said, was not constucred by them, it was not industrict improheble that an indictment would be found against "Frenchy" before the Coroner's inquest is held.

Considerable interest has been awatened in the two new withresses in the c.s. Edwin being at the House o. Detention.

Nothing whatever can be learned about the woman, but bmith is said to be about thirtwaix years old, 3 feet 9 inches tall, with light brown nair and mustache and light complexion.

This answers fairly well to the description of "C. whiele," the man who accompanied old "Shakespeare" to room it, as furnished by Marr Miniter, the housekeeper who let the room to tacm.

AT GUTTENBURG.

Medium sized fleids are the rule at Guttengood racing. The entries are very good in quality and a very fair lot will come together in several of the events. The fenture is the Brooklyn Ciftzen Handlean, at a mile and a furlong. The entries to this are silm, and it will probably resolve itself into a duel between Longstreet and either Text or Kenwood. The test plays on the card are Rambier in the third race and Autocrat in the 67th. Harry Ireland 1-3-5 in the sixth race should also be a good play.

The first race is a five-furtong dash. Jay Qu El may win, with Headlight second, and Lucre The second race is at a mile. Baldwin looks Policemen Charged with Intimidation by Arrests on Flimey Charges.

The apparent attempt to railroad to prison the witnesses against Policeman Lober, up in burg to-day and they give promise of very Capt. Berghold's Twenty-sixth Precinct, presents one of the most startling situations im-ranted arrest by Policeman Costigan, Loter's friend, of Frank Ploof, one of the chance witnesses of the unprovoked assault made by Policeman Lober upon Freight Brakeman John Hartley, fellowed by the presentation of a s-up charge in the Harlem Police

Thanks to the work of THE WORLD in exposing the desperate and lawless action of Policeman Loter and his friends, this move, like the attempt to get Hartley out of the way till after the trial of Lober by the Police Commis-

Justice Welds was well posted on the whole affair, and when Flood told him that he was a witness against Lober he understood it all. In discharging the prisoner yesterday he warned Policemen Costigen that it would be a dengerous job for him to ever arrest another prisser under similar circumstances.

At 2. 30 yesterday morning Flood entered up by knocking Hartley down and brutally under the circumstances, however much cluboling him, after which he arrested him.

Hartley was discharged next morning in Police Court, but charges were preferred against Lober before the Commissioners.

Then Lober proceeded to get Hartley out of the way. He got a fellow-officer to arrest him as an escaped prisoner of 1837 from Blackwell's Island and he was ratironded back to the Island, Inough the original charge on which be was sent up for three months in 1867 was for taking part in a street fight, and since his escape by swimming across the river to Astoria he had lived a quiet, decent life in Hariem.

Letter to the Jeffersonians Reviving Stories Against Flower.

A very free and brersy statement by Lieut. Gov. Edward F. Jones of his ylews on the candidacy of Congressman Roswell P. Flower for the Democratic nomination for the Governorship is the political sensation of to-day. tenant-Governor in reply to a circular bened by the Jeffersonian Club, of Watertown Some weeks ago, and some time after Lieut, Gov. Jones began sending out his circular boomlets, the friends of Mr. Flower in Watertown realized that it was about time to start a popular wave on which their favorite might ride into the Executive chair at Albany. Accordingly they organized the Jefferso

Club, and with that one obtest in view adopted circular setting forth the virtues and claims of their candidates, and Secretary Thomas distributed among the Democrats of the State. Edward P. Jones, Mr. Flower's rival for the nomination, and it elicited the following letter which can hardly be said to be an agreement in favor of making the favorite of Jefferson County the Democratic candidate for Governor.
